

Booking Conditions

The following Booking Conditions together with our General Information form the basis of your contract. All bookings are subject to these booking conditions. Azamara Cruises is a brand name of Celebrity Cruises Inc. and is operated by Celebrity Cruises International. The parties to that contract are yourself, Celebrity Cruises Inc. of Miami, Florida ("Celebrity"). The parent company of Celebrity is Royal Caribbean Cruises Ltd. Also of Miami, Florida, and the local agent of both these companies is Royal Caribbean Cruise Line s.a. Celebrity accepts legal responsibility for the proper performance of this contract as set out below. In these Bookings Conditions, "you" and "your" means all persons named on a booking and "we", "us" and "ourselves" means Celebrity unless the context clearly provides otherwise.

Fly Cruise customers

Note: If you book an Azamara flight and cruise with us, then you have peace of mind knowing that Azamara Cruises will be fully responsible for your well being for the duration of your holiday with us in accordance with these Booking Conditions.

Cruise only customers

Note: If you book an Azamara Cruises cruise-only holiday in conjunction with other services (such as flights, on-shore accommodation and/or ground transfers) which are arranged or provided by a travel agent or tour operator ("Travel organiser") with whom you book (and not us), your contract for your entire holiday including the cruise and all other such services and arrangements will be with your travel organiser and not with us. The travel organiser's own booking conditions (and with the exception of clause 5.13 (c)), not the following conditions will apply to your contract. Please ensure you obtain a copy of these from your travel organiser before or at the time of booking. Please note, we do not have any liability to you in these circumstances. However, in the event we are found liable to you on any basis, our liability towards obligations to you or your travel organiser will be no greater or different to the liability and obligations we have under these booking conditions to consumers who have a contract with us. In any such situation we will be fully entitled to rely on all defences, exclusions and limitations contained in the booking conditions set out below.

1. Booking a holiday

1.1 How do I make a booking?
To book your chosen holiday, contact one of our Reservations Department 0844 493 2049, or book online at www.azamaracruises.co.uk or visit one of our authorised travel agents. If booking through one of our authorised travel agents the first named person on the booking (who must be at least 21 - see clause 5.3) must complete and sign our booking form. This must then be handed to your travel agent to be kept on file. For all bookings contact you must pay a deposit of 150 per person (or full payment if booking within 56 days of departure). Your full name as it appears on your passport, as well as your date of birth, must be given at the time of reservation.

Please note that any payment you make to us using a debit or credit card will be settled via a bank in the U.S., and therefore your card issuer may be asked to apply a foreign settlement fee. Please refer to the terms and conditions of your debit or credit card for details.

1.2 How will my holiday be confirmed?

Providing your chosen holiday is available and we have received your booking form (where applicable) and all appropriate payments, we will send our Confirmation Invoice to you (if booking direct) or your Travel Agent. Please note: it may not be possible to confirm your flight details at this point. If so, these will be confirmed to you at a later date.

A binding contract between us only comes into existence when we send out our Confirmation Invoice. A contract will exist at this point, even if we are unable to confirm your flight details at that time. This invoice will show the balance due on your holiday that still has to be paid and also your flight details (where applicable and/or available).

Please check all details are correct as soon as you receive your Confirmation Invoice, cruise documents, flight tickets and any other documents from your Travel Agent or us. If any details appear to be incorrect, you must inform your Travel Agent or our Reservations Department as soon as possible within 7 days of us sending the document to your Travel Agent or you for all documents other than flight tickets and e-tickets and within 3 days for flight tickets and e-tickets. Once your airline tickets have been issued, all ticket coupons must be used in sequence as originally booked. Any flight ticket not utilised within 12 months of issue and the rest of the itinerary will automatically be cancelled.

1.3 What information must I provide to you and why?

From time to time we may be required to pass on to U.S. authorities information about you and your holiday. Our authorised bodies certain personal and other details relating to our guests. You must provide us with specific information at the time of booking your cruise or no later than 70 days prior to your departure from the U.K., whichever is the later. This information includes certain personal information, passport, emergency contact and insurance details. We will inform you at the time of booking, or as soon as we become aware, of the exact details required. We strongly recommend you visit our website at www.azamaracruises.co.uk and click on 'Before Your Cruise' then 'Online Check-in' and submit these details online. Providing this information online and prior to your cruise will significantly speed up your check-in process and can enable you to board the ship sooner and avoid delays and queues at the cruise terminal. If you have not completed online check-in, you will be required to complete this process at the pier two hours prior to the published sailing time. If you are unable to complete the online check-in process, this may be due to an outstanding balance on your booking. If you have booked via a travel agent, please speak to your travel agent so that the funds can be transferred to us to complete your online check-in. Please note: all guests must be checked in and onboard the ship no later than 90 minutes prior to the published sailing time or they will not be permitted to sail.

You will need to have your booking 10 and date of sailing to hand or, if we have already received this information from you at the time of booking, verify that the details we are holding are complete and accurate. If you do not have access to the internet, please see your Travel Agent or contact our Reservations Department if you have booked direct. They will advise you on how this information can be provided or verified. Our procedures may change and we will inform you of any changes at the time of booking or as soon as possible thereafter. We may need to pass the information you give us at the time of booking or later to the various suppliers who provide the elements which make up your holiday. At the time of printing this brochure the EU airlines we use are also required to pass certain of their passenger data to the U.S. Authorities. It may also be necessary for such data to be passed to other authorities also. This will include at least some of the information you provide to us. If you fail to supply the details requested, with any inaccuracies, we are entitled to refuse you booking or, if you fail to provide them at a later date you may not be permitted to board your cruise ship and/or return flight. We will not be liable to you in any situation and we will not pay you any compensation or make any refunds. You will be responsible for your onward/return travel arrangements. Failure to have this information results in fines, surcharges or other financial penalty being imposed on us, you will be responsible for reimbursing us accordingly. Please also see our Privacy Statement on page 33.

Passengers arriving in the U.S. will have a digital photograph taken, and have electronic finger prints taken. If you would like further information, please ask at the time of booking or contact the U.K. Passport Office or U.S. Embassy. Electronic System For Travel Authorisation (ESTA). ESTA is an automated system used to determine the eligibility of visitors to travel to the United States under the Visa Waiver Program (VWP) and whether such travel poses any law enforcement or security risk. To apply for authorisation to travel to the U.S. under the VWP, travellers will log on to the ESTA web-based system and complete an application online providing the biographical and eligibility information required on the paper I-94W form. To apply for the ESTA authorisation process, please log on to the ESTA website at <http://esta.cbp.dhs.gov>

The airlines will be ensuring that the ESTA information has been completed at check-in. For cruise check-in, our guests will need to bring a printed copy of their ESTA approval and present this at the pier when checking in for a cruise that will call/finish at any U.S. port. If your cruise starts in another country, but calls at or finishes at a U.S. port, you will need to show your ESTA approval for boarding. Please note that we cannot accept any responsibility if ESTA applications are not accepted by the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS). Any rejected ESTA applications will need to be referred to the Embassy of the United States to apply for a visa to travel to the U.S.

1.4 When is the balance due?
Please note that we must receive the balance of the holiday cost not less than 57 days prior to departure. If you book your cruise or any of our departures before the total holiday cost at the time of booking, if we have not received all monies due to us in full and on time (including any surcharge where applicable) we are entitled to assume that you have cancelled your holiday. In this case, you will have to pay cancellation charges as set out below (see clause 1.10).

1.5 What happens to money paid to a travel agent?

Except for flight insurance bookings, all monies you pay to one of our authorised travel agents for your holiday with us will be held by the agent on your behalf until we issue our Confirmation Invoice. The monies are held on our behalf on the monies on our behalf. For flight insurance bookings, all monies paid to such authorised agents for your holidays with us will be held on our behalf until they are paid to us or refunded to you. If you are unable to complete the online check-in process, this may be due to an outstanding balance on your booking. If you have booked via a travel agent, please speak to your travel agent so that the funds can be transferred to us to complete your online check-in.

1.6 What does the price include?

All prices quoted in this brochure are per person in U.K. Sterling and are based on two people sharing the specified stateroom. Some elements of your holiday, including what it is and is included in the price will vary by itinerary. However, generally fly/cruise prices include the following where applicable: full board accommodation and entertainment* on board ship; return international and connecting flights (as stated on the confirmation invoice); U.K. departure tax; port, hotel and airport transfers, as stated in the itinerary; hotel accommodation as stated in the itinerary (room only basis unless otherwise stated); representatives at some overseas arrival airports on standard departure dates; and all relevant taxes excluding those set out below.

Fly/cruise pricing, as stated in the brochure, is based on the lowest available U.K. departure airport (which may be a regional airport) at the time of going to print. Please contact our Reservations Department, your travel agent or cruise specialist for further details.

For cruise-only guests, the cruise price includes full board accommodation and entertainment* on board ship and all relevant taxes excluding those set out below. For cruise-only guests who book pre-cruise 'Stay Longer with Azamara' hotel accommodation, a transfer will be provided from the 'Stay Longer with Azamara' hotel to the pier, transportation from the U.K. to the overseas arrival airport and transfers to the 'Stay Longer with Azamara' hotel and transfers to the pier at the end of your cruise to the 'Stay Longer with Azamara' hotel. For cruise-only guests who book post-cruise 'Stay Longer with Azamara' hotel accommodation, a transfer will be provided from the pier at the end of your cruise to the 'Stay Longer with Azamara' hotel and transfers from the U.K. to the overseas arrival airport and transfers to the pier are not provided. Transfers from the 'Stay Longer with Azamara' hotel to the overseas departure airport and flights to the U.K. will not be provided. All holiday elements featured in this brochure are subject to availability at the time of booking and unless otherwise agreed, the price does not include non U.K. departure taxes or airport improvement tax (an exemption certificate will have to be paid locally); shore excursions and personal expenses (for example, onboard drinks, laundry charges, health and beauty treatments, hairdressing, telephone calls, etc.), hotel meals onboard (unless otherwise stated); transfers by any method if not travelling on the standard departure date(s); travel insurance; service charges*, i.e. tips or gratuities on board or ashore; any thing else which is not specifically mentioned as being included in the price.

* A charge may be made for some entertainment activities on board.

 Service charge for on board dining and stateroom staff will be automatically added if you declined to pre-pay this service charge at the time of booking.

We reserve the right to include a fuel supplement when making a booking. The value of the supplement will be confirmed to you at the time of making a booking with us. Please note, if you are taking consecutive cruises there may be some duplication with regard to onboard programmes, meals and entertainment.

1.7 How do I obtain the lowest price per person?

The prices shown in this brochure show a 'from' price. Fly/Cruise pricing as stated in the brochure is based on the lowest fare available from a U.K. departure airport (which may be a regional airport) at the time of going to print. Please contact our Reservations Department, your Travel Agent or your cruise specialist for further details. The 'from' prices are calculated on the lowest stateroom category available, this pricing may not be available on all sail dates shown. The price is subject to any changes in our stateroom category, availability and departure airport if you purchase our fly/cruise package. Prices may change at any time, please contact your travel agent or us if you are booking.

1.8 What is a 'Guarantee' (GTY) booking?
We may (at our discretion) offer you the option of making a 'Guarantee' (GTY) booking. This means you may book a stateroom of a guaranteed minimum category type, specified by us at the time of booking, on your chosen ship. However, the exact location of the stateroom on the ship will be allocated by us (at our discretion) and at any time up until checking in at the Port. Once your GTY stateroom has been allocated to you, we are unable to accept any changes requested by you on board. Once the stateroom has been allocated to you, your booking has been confirmed, we (at our discretion) upgrade your stateroom to one of a superior category that is originally booked at no extra charge to you. In any event, you are 'guaranteed' the minimum category of stateroom we agree to offer at the time of booking. If you have a specific requirement, or stateroom location you suggest you do not book a GTY. At times, we may offer promotional GTY offers. Such promotional GTY categories are defined as follows:

- X - Suite
- Y - Deluxe stateroom
- Z - Interior stateroom

Please note: If you book 2 or more cruises to be taken consecutively (back to back) and either one or all cruises are booked under a GTY (guarantee) basis, there is the possibility that you will be allocated different staterooms on each cruise, therefore necessitating the need to move between staterooms on the changeover day between your consecutive cruises.

1.9 Will the price change?

We reserve the right to increase or decrease the prices of unsold holidays at any time. The price of your chosen holiday will be confirmed in accordance with clause 1.2. Once the price of your chosen holiday has been confirmed at the time of booking, then subject to the correction of errors, we will only increase or decrease the price in the following circumstances. Price increases or decreases after booking will be passed on by way of a surcharge or refund. A surcharge or refund (as applicable) will be payable, subject to the conditions set out in this clause, if transportation costs or duties, taxes or fees payable for services such as landing taxes or embarkation or disembarkation fees at ports or airports increase or decrease or our costs increase or decrease as a result of any adverse or favourable changes in the exchange rates which have been used to calculate the cost of your holiday. Even in the above cases, only if the amount of the increase in our costs exceeds 2% of the total cost of your holiday (excluding any amendment charges), will we levy a surcharge. If any surcharge is greater than 10% of the cost of your holiday (excluding any amendment charges), you will be entitled to choose one of options (a), (b) and (c) as set out in clause 5.5 below.

If you wish to cancel your holiday within this period of time, we are entitled to assume that you do not wish to do so and will pay the surcharge. Any surcharge must be paid with the balance of the cost of the holiday or within 14 days of the issue date printed on the surcharge invoice, whichever is the later. We promise not to levy a surcharge within 30 days of the start of your holiday. Please note that travel arrangements are not always purchased in local currency and some apparent changes have no impact on the price of your holiday due to contractual and other protection in place. A refund will only be payable if the decrease in our costs exceeds 2% as set out above. Where a refund is due, we will pay you the full amount of the decrease in our costs.

We reserve the right to correct errors in both advertised and confirmed prices. We will do so as soon as we become aware of the error. Please note, changes or errors occasionally occur. You must check the price of your chosen holiday at the time of booking. Please note any changes you make to your booking may result in a change in price explained in clause 1.11 below.

1.10 If I have to cancel my cruise holiday, will I receive a refund?

If you or anybody travelling with you wishes to cancel either you/their/holiday, you must contact us (if booking direct) or your travel agent and give notice in writing using registered mail to ensure safe receipt of the cancellation letter. The holiday will only be cancelled on the date we actually receive the written notice of cancellation. Generally if you cancel you will have to pay the cancellation charges set out below. Amendment charges cannot be refunded in the event of cancellation.

For cancellations received, the following cancellations charges will apply:

5 days or less	100%
6 to 14 days	75%
15 - 28 days	50%
29 - 56 days	20%
57 days or more	Deposit only (£150 per person)

Please refer to section 1.11 when making a significant amendment to within 56 days of departure. If you cancel your booking may be treated as a cancellation and cancellation charges will apply. Therefore a new booking will then be created incorporating any insurance terms or conditions applicable at that time.

Please note: The date of departure means the date the departure arrangements you have booked set out below commence. Depending on the reason for cancellation, you may be able to reclaim these cancellation charges (less any applicable insurance) under the terms of your travel insurance policy. You must be made directly to your insurance company. Where any cancellation reduces the number of full paying party members below the number on which the price, number of free places and/or any concessions agreed for your booking were based, we will recalculate these items and re-invoice you at the applicable higher price.

1.11 Can I make changes to my booking after it has been confirmed?

Should you wish to make any changes to your confirmed holiday, you must notify us in writing as soon as possible. Whilst we will endeavour to assist you, we cannot guarantee we will be able to meet any such request. For guests wishing to make a significant amendment to their booking outside of 56 days from departure, such as changing the ship, sail date or brand, please note that a booking transfer fee is applicable. The transfer fee is £75 per guest which is limited to the first two guests on a booking, therefore any 3rd/4th guests will not be charged as well. Please note that your booking will be re-priced in-line with the up to date business and price rules and a new confirmation invoice will be issued.

For all minor changes outside of 56 days from departure (such as change of stateroom or name change on an existing booking), an amendment fee of £35 per guest per booking will be payable together with any costs incurred by ourselves and any costs or charges incurred or imposed by any of our suppliers. Passengers should note that airlines may not allow name changes on scheduled flights and that the flight booking may need to be cancelled and rebooked. The rebooking will always be subject to flight availability and the payment of any charges imposed by the airline which may, in some cases, be the full cost of the ticket.

If you request a change within 56 days of departure, this may be treated as a cancellation of your original booking and cancellation charges as set out in these terms and conditions will be payable (see clause 1.10). The changed arrangements will then be treated as a new booking.

If you or any of persons travelling with you is prevented from taking the holiday, you may give your holiday to another person to someone else (suggested by you). In this situation, bookings we are given not less than 7 days notice in writing of your wish to make the change will permit the name change. The airline and flight routing may differ from the original assignment due to this name change. You must produce documentary proof of the reason for the transfer of your/their booking with the request (e.g. a letter from a doctor etc.). Both the person who was originally due to take the holiday and the person who actually does so, must make sure that the administration fee and any charges/costs (see below) as well as any amount which is still due to be paid for the holiday, is paid in full before the change will be made.

1.12 Will I need travel insurance?

We strongly recommend that guests who have appropriate personal travel insurance before departure. This must include as a minimum cover for the cost of cancellation by yourself and the cost of assistance including repatriation in the event of accident or illness. It is your responsibility to make sure that the insurance you purchase is suitable and adequate for your particular needs and to purchase additional or alternative insurance if required. We would strongly recommend that you contact your travel agent or an independent insurance broker for details of suitable policies.

2. Before you leave home

2.1 What about valuable or important items?

Please make sure that all valuable and important items (for example, medicines, jewellery, fragile items, important travel and other documents, video/camera/computer equipment, etc.) are carried by hand and not packed in your luggage and/or left unsecured in your stateroom or elsewhere on board the ship. Special care must be taken of such items. For your protection once on board, all valuable and important items should be deposited with the Guest Relations Desk or your stateroom mini-safe. You are also strongly advised to take out appropriate and adequate insurance to cover the loss of your or important items, which are not deposited with the Guest Relations Desk or with your hotel or stateroom safe or safekeeping. For items which are so deposited, the maximum we will pay you if any item(s) is lost or damaged (or any amount) within our care is the maximum which is payable under The Athens Convention (see clause 5.8) in this situation (currently approximately £1,000 per guest, per cruise).

So that we may assist as much as possible with any loss you booking may be treated as a cancellation and cancellation charges will apply. Therefore a new booking will then be created incorporating any insurance terms or conditions applicable at that time.

Please note: The date of departure means the date the departure arrangements you have booked set out below commence. Depending on the reason for cancellation, you may be able to reclaim these cancellation charges (less any applicable insurance) under the terms of your travel insurance policy. You must be made directly to your insurance company. Where any cancellation reduces the number of full paying party members below the number on which the price, number of free places and/or any concessions agreed for your booking were based, we will recalculate these items and re-invoice you at the applicable higher price.

1.11 Can I make changes to my booking after it has been confirmed?

Should you wish to make any changes to your confirmed holiday, you must notify us in writing as soon as possible. Whilst we will endeavour to assist you, we cannot guarantee we will be able to meet any such request. For guests wishing to make a significant amendment to their booking outside of 56 days from departure, such as changing the ship, sail date or brand, please note that a booking transfer fee is applicable. The transfer fee is £75 per guest which is limited to the first two guests on a booking, therefore any 3rd/4th guests will not be charged as well. Please note that your booking will be re-priced in-line with the up to date business and price rules and a new confirmation invoice will be issued.

For all minor changes outside of 56 days from departure (such as change of stateroom or name change on an existing booking), an amendment fee of £35 per guest per booking will be payable together with any costs incurred by ourselves and any costs or charges incurred or imposed by any of our suppliers. Passengers should note that airlines may not allow name changes on scheduled flights and that the flight booking may need to be cancelled and rebooked. The rebooking will always be subject to flight availability and the payment of any charges imposed by the airline which may, in some cases, be the full cost of the ticket.

If you request a change within 56 days of departure, this may be treated as a cancellation of your original booking and cancellation charges as set out in these terms and conditions will be payable (see clause 1.10). The changed arrangements will then be treated as a new booking. If you or any of persons travelling with you is prevented from taking the holiday, you may give your holiday to another person to someone else (suggested by you). In this situation, bookings we are given not less than 7 days notice in writing of your wish to make the change will permit the name change. The airline and flight routing may differ from the original assignment due to this name change. Both the person who was originally due to take the holiday and the person who actually does so, must make sure that the administration fee and any charges/costs (see below) as well as any amount which is still due to be paid for the holiday, is paid in full before the change will be made.

2.3 What should I do if my property is lost, delayed or damaged during my cruise?
This clause applies in relation to any loss, delay or damage to property which occurs during your cruise or whilst getting on or off the ship or whilst using any services provided or arranged by us except for any claims in relation to any valuable or important items (see clause 2.1) or in relation to air travel, including the process of getting on or off the aircraft (see clause 2.4 below).

It is our guest's responsibility to remove all of their belongings from their stateroom when they depart their cruise. If an item is left onboard, whilst we will assist you in trying to recover the item, if we are unable to do so, then we cannot be held responsible and we will refer you to your travel insurance to make a claim for the item. Please note that items left behind may be destroyed.

You must tell us about the problem as soon as possible. If you discover the loss, delay or damage when on board, you must immediately report it to the Guest Relations Desk. The time limits for notifying any loss, delay or damage, and the maximum amount which will be payable by us or the supplier concerned, are as follows:

Any damage or delay, which is apparent, must be notified to ourselves and the supplier of the service concerned (if it is not us) before or, at latest, at the time of departure from the ship or, for other services, whilst using or at the end of using those services. Any loss, damage or delay, which is not apparent, must be notified to ourselves and the supplier of the service concerned (if it is not us) within 15 days of departure from the ship or the end of using the service in question. If you can prove that the damage, delay or loss was our fault or the fault of the supplier of a service that we agreed to arrange as part of your holiday, we will compensate you for the loss or damage you can prove you have suffered as a result, subject to and in accordance with The Athens Convention. However, the maximum we will have to pay you for any damage, delay or loss in these circumstances is the maximum which is payable in respect of cabin luggage under The Athens Convention (currently approximately £750 per guest per cruise holiday). This will also be the case where any property is damaged, delayed or lost whilst not on board or getting on or off the ship or but using other services (apart from air travel) which form part of the holiday we have contractually agreed to provide. In all cases, you must take account of payments received from any airline and/or other supplier in connection with your claim. You must also give us details of any relevant insurance coverage you hold. In appropriate cases we are entitled to ask you to reduce your claim by the amount received from any/all insurance companies.

2.4 What should I do if my property is lost, delayed or damaged during air travel?

Any damage, destruction, delay or loss suffered during air travel or air (including in excess of getting on and off the aircraft) must be notified to ourselves and the airline at the time of discovery or, in any event, in writing within 7 days of the relevant flight. This will be the Montreal Convention or within 21 days of the luggage being made available for you in the event of delay. The maximum we or the airline will have to pay you in the event of any damage, destruction, delay or loss of luggage or property is the most which is payable under the relevant international convention or regulation. For most international flights, this will be the Montreal Convention 1999. Where the Montreal Convention 1999 applies, the services on which the airline is liable for any damage, destruction, delay or loss, destruction, damage, delay of luggage or property must be notified to ourselves and the supplier of the service concerned (if it is not us) within 15 days of departure from the ship or the end of your using the service in question.

In all cases, you must give credit for payments

received from any airline and/or other supplier in connection with your claim. You must also give us details of any relevant insurance coverage you hold. In appropriate cases we are entitled to ask you to reduce your claim by the amount received from any/all insurance companies.

2.2 Are there any prohibited items that I cannot take with me?

You must not pack in any luggage or bring on board any item specified as dangerous or illegal (e.g. guns, explosives, drugs, animals, flammable items, etc.). In addition, whilst the airline may specify other items which you must not bring with you, we may also refuse to allow you to take on board any item which we're airline, consider being inappropriate. If we or the Master of the ship have reason to believe that any stateroom may contain any item or substance which should not have been brought on board, the Master or an authorised officer has the right to enter and search the stateroom concerned and seize any such item or substance.

Please ensure that any sharp items, including but not limited to scissors, razor blades, nail clippers, tweezers, combs with metal prongs and knitting needles, are packed in your check-in luggage and not your hand luggage due to airport security measures.

2.3 What should I do if my property is lost, delayed or damaged during my cruise?

This clause applies in relation to any loss, delay or damage to property which occurs during your cruise or whilst getting on or off the ship or whilst using any services provided or arranged by us except for any claims in relation to any valuable or important items (see clause 2.1) or in relation to air travel, including the process of getting on or off the aircraft (see clause 2.4 below).

It is our guest's responsibility to remove all of their belongings from their stateroom when they depart their cruise. If an item is left onboard, whilst we will assist you in trying to recover the item, if we are unable to do so, then we cannot be held responsible and we will refer you to your travel insurance to make a claim for the item. Please note that items left behind may be destroyed.

You must tell us about the problem as soon as possible. If you discover the loss, delay or damage when on board, you must immediately report it to the Guest Relations Desk. The time limits for notifying any loss, delay or damage, and the maximum amount which will be payable by us or the supplier concerned, are as follows:

2.4 What should I do if my property is lost, delayed or damaged during air travel?

Any damage, destruction, delay or loss suffered during air travel or air (including in excess of getting on and off the aircraft) must be notified to ourselves and the airline at the time of discovery or, in any event, in writing within 7 days of the relevant flight. This will be the Montreal Convention or within 21 days of the luggage being made available for you in the event of delay. The maximum we or the airline will have to pay you in the event of any damage, destruction, delay or loss of luggage or property is the most which is payable under the relevant international convention or regulation. For most international flights, this will be the Montreal Convention 1999. Where the Montreal Convention 1999 applies, the services on which the airline is liable for any damage, destruction, delay or loss, destruction, damage, delay of luggage or property must be notified to ourselves and the supplier of the service concerned (if it is not us) within 15 days of departure from the ship or the end of your using the service in question.

2.4 What should I do if my property is lost, delayed or damaged during air travel?

Any damage, destruction, delay or loss suffered during air travel or air (including in excess of getting on and off the aircraft) must be notified to ourselves and the airline at the time of discovery or, in any event, in writing within 7 days of the relevant flight. This will be the Montreal Convention or within 21 days of the luggage being made available for you in the event of delay. The maximum we or the airline will have to pay you in the event of any damage, destruction, delay or loss of luggage or property is the most which is payable under the relevant international convention or regulation. For most international flights, this will be the Montreal Convention 1999. Where the Montreal Convention 1999 applies, the services on which the airline is liable for any damage, destruction, delay or loss, destruction, damage, delay of luggage or property must be notified to ourselves and the supplier of the service concerned (if it is not us) within 15 days of departure from the ship or the end of your using the service in question.

We and the airline will not be liable to pay any compensation in the case of delay affecting luggage or on the airline can prove that the airline took all measures that could reasonably be required to avoid the delay or that it was impossible for the airline or its employees to take such measures. In the case of damage, destruction, delay or loss of luggage, if we or the airline prove that the damage, destruction, delay or loss was caused or contributed to by the negligence or other wrongful act or omission of the person claiming compensation, or the person from whom he or she derives his rights, we and the airline will not be liable for the damage, destruction, delay or loss, to the extent that such negligence or wrongful act or omission caused or contributed to the damage, destruction, delay or loss. Subject to the above, we and the airline will only be liable for destruction or loss of, or damage to, checked luggage on the condition only that the event which caused the destruction, loss or damage took place on board the aircraft or during any period within which the checked luggage was in the charge of the airline. However, neither we nor the airline will be liable if and to the extent that the destruction loss or damage resulted from the inherent defect, quality or vice of the luggage. In the case of unchecked luggage, including personal items, we and the airline will only be liable if the damage resulted from the airline's fault or that of its employees or agents. In all cases, you must take account of payments received from any airline or other supplier in connection with your claim.

You must also give us details of any relevant insurance coverage you hold. In appropriate cases we are entitled to ask you to reduce your claim by the amount received from any insurance companies.

2.5 What is my luggage allowance?

The maximum luggage allowance for guests boarding our ships is 90kg per guest, however, airlines also impose their own luggage allowance, with which you must comply. This is usually less than the cruise allowance. Please note if you are sailing on a transatlantic cruise and you have booked any cruises during the same holiday, your luggage allowance will be limited to the lower allowance, specified by the airline. Some guests may be aware that the baggage allowance is 20kg, but please do not be aware that the baggage allowance is limited to 20kg. Any additional bag will incur charges. There are always restrictions on the amount, size and weight of the luggage you can take on any flight, and we are using non-scheduled services. We strongly recommend that you check with the airline for confirmation of your baggage allowance in some instances baggage allowance can be limited to as little as 15kg. All luggage allowances are subject to variation by the airline concerned and you may be charged additional costs by the airline for excess luggage. Recently many airlines have reduced the number of free pieces of checked baggage you can take on transatlantic flights. Please check with your airline for details.

2.6 What are the passport and visa requirements for my holiday?

Passports
If you are a British citizen (including children and infants), you must have your own full 10 year (5 year for children) British Passport and it is recommended that it is valid for at least 6 months after your expected return date to the U.K. Guests holding non British passports should check with the relevant embassies. It is no longer possible for children to be included on their parent's passport. Obtaining a full British passport presently takes approximately 4 weeks, but you should allow longer at busy times of the year. If you or any member of your party is 16 or over and haven't yet got a passport, our recommendation is that you should apply for one at least 6 weeks before your holiday. The U.K. Passport Service can confirm your identity before issuing your first passport and from October 2006 will ask you to attend an interview in order to do this. All guests should check with the relevant embassy prior to travel for the most up to date information on passport requirements.

If you are travelling to the U.S. under the Visa Waiver Program, you and all members of your party (including children and infants) must have a valid machine readable A British passport is machine readable when there are two lines of letters, numbers and chevrons (>>>>>) printed across the top of the passport. The machine-readable text will appear on a white strip on older passports and directly on a pink page of newer passports. If there are no such lines of text on the personal information page, the passport is not machine-readable. From 26 October 2004, anyone travelling to the U.S. under the Visa Waiver Programme without a machine-readable passport will need a visa to travel to the U.S. If you are travelling to the U.S. after October 2006, you must have a valid machine-readable passport carrying a passport issued after this date, you will be required to have a biometric passport. British travellers with valid October 2006 machine-readable passports may continue to be travelling to the U.S. under the Visa Waiver Programme can travel on their existing passport up to, and beyond, October 2006. If your passport is issued after 26 October 2006 and it is not biometric you will not qualify for visa free travel but will be required to obtain a visa. For more details on passports, please ask at the time of booking or contact the U.K. Passport Office. Please note that this information is particularly subject to change, and you must check the up to date requirements in good time before departure.

Please note: Certain persons may not be eligible to enter the U.S. visa free under the Visa Waiver Program. These include, but are not limited to, for example people who have been arrested, even if the arrest did not result in a criminal conviction and those with criminal records, (The Rehabilitation of Offenders Act does not apply to U.S. visa law) etc. If you are in any doubt whatsoever as to whether you can travel under the Visa Waiver Program you are strongly advised to contact the Consular Information Unit, United States Embassy, 24 Grosvenor Square, LONDON W1A 1AE or visit www.usembassy.org.uk before you book your holiday with us. Guests arriving in the U.S. will have a digital photograph taken, and have inkless digital scans taken of their index fingers. If you would like further information, please ask at the time of booking or contact the U.K. Passport Office or U.S. Embassy.

Electronic System for Travel Authorization (ESTA)
ESTA is an automated system used to determine the eligibility of visitors to travel to the United States under the Visa Waiver Program (VWP) and whether such travel poses any law enforcement or security risk.

To apply for authorisation to travel to the U.S. under the VWP, travellers will log on to the ESTA web-based system and complete an application online providing name, biographic, and eligibility information, as requested on the paper I-94W form. To apply for the ESTA authorisation process, please log on to the ESTA website at <http://esta.dhs.gov>. The airlines will be ensuring that the ESTA information has been completed at check-in. For cruise check-in, our guests will need to bring a printed copy of their ESTA approval and present this at the pier when checking in for a cruise that will call/finish at any U.S. port. Please note that we cannot accept any responsibility if ESTA applications are rejected by the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) or if you are rejected ESTA applications will need to be referred to the Embassy of the United States to apply for a visa to travel to the United States.

Visas
Please note that there may be a visa requirement for your cruise, particularly if you are visiting countries in Asia, the Middle East or Australia. We recommend that you contact our recommended visa agent, The Visa Company for advice and to purchase the most up to date visa requirements for your cruise. Established in 1997, The Visa Company is the largest visa agency in the U.K. This online service contains up-to-the-minute information on specific visa requirements for all nationalities to all destinations, and handles over a million possible visa requirements. Travellers do not have the expense of travelling to an embassy or the hassle of standing in a queue.

To make sure you know about the visa requirements for your destination, please go online to www.thevisacompany.com or call the information line to speak to a visa consultant: 09065 500 740*

The Visa Company are pleased to offer a special discount of 12.5% to Azamara Cruise guests who book their visas online with them. Please quote the discount code shown on your Azamara Cruises booking confirmation invoice when you book your visas online.

*To speak with a visa consultant, calls will cost £1 per minute from a U.K. landline. Calls from other networks may vary. At the time of going to print, the visa requirements for U.K. passport holders are as follows. Please note that these requirements should act as a guide only and are subject to the change at any time.

China please note that for U.K. passport holders, the port of Sanya does not require a visa. You may also not require a visa for Hong Kong, please check with The Visa Company. When applying for a Chinese visa, you must state each port of call you will visit as this dictates what type of visa is required, a single, double or multiple.

India visa required prior to departure

Vietnam & Cambodia visa can be purchased on board the ship (for approximately USD $350)

Russia visa required if guests are making independent arrangements, however visa is not required if guests are booked on an Azamara shore excursion

Turkey visa required if guests obtain a Quick Trip Visa on arrival at the port.

Egypt most guests are provided with a Quick Trip Visa onboard the ship which is valid for 72 hours and allows entry to Egypt. This service is available to citizens of European Economic Community countries.

Israel U.K. passport holders do not currently require a visa to enter Israel.

Japan U.K. passport holders do not currently require a visa for entry to Israel.

Alternatively, you can visit the relevant embassy in person to arrange the necessary visa. Please note that the above visa advice is for U.K. passport holders only. Guests who hold other nationality of passports should check with either The Visa Company or with the relevant embassy of each port of call. Where visas can be purchased onboard, guests are asked to complete the online check-in process, including all mandatory information at www.azamaracruises.co.uk. Click on 'Before Your Cruise' then 'Online Check-in' in advance of your sailing. Completing this information will significantly speed up the process for you and will avoid delays and queues on the ship. Please also note that if there is requirement to have a visa to travel to a particular country, even if a guest chooses to not disembark the ship in that country, then the guest is still required to obtain the necessary visa. The only exception to this rule is Russia where a guest is able to stay on the ship in St Petersburg and not need to obtain a visa. You must ensure that all guest's names (including initials) are exactly the same as they appear on their ticket as in their passport. If there is any difference, you may be refused entry onto your flight/cruise.

Passport and visa requirements may change and vary by destination. We regret we cannot accept any liability if you are refused entry onto any flight or into any country, or otherwise suffer any difficulties or incur any costs as a result of not having the correct passport and/or any required visa(s). It is your responsibility to ensure that you are in possession of all necessary travel and health documents before departure. You must pay all costs incurred in obtaining such documentation. If failure to have any necessary travel or other documents results in fines, surcharges or other financial penalty being imposed on us, you will be responsible for reimbursing us accordingly.

Certain Port Authorities may from time to time ask to see photographs of all passengers for a cruise that will call/finish at that port. We strongly suggest that you take a photocopy of your passport in addition to your passport itself with you on holiday. We cannot be held responsible for any loss of your passport or ship in order to minimise any inconvenience this may cause.

2.7 Are there any formal health requirements?

Please contact your G.P. for advice and the most up-to-date health requirements for all destinations featured in this brochure at least 4 weeks prior to travel. Information on health is also contained in the Department of Health leaflet T6 (Health Advice for Travellers) available from your local Department of Health Office and most Post Offices. Further travel advice can be found on www.fittotravel.com and www.natnac.org. For European holidays, from 1 January 2006 you will need a European Health Insurance Card (EHIC) to receive healthcare that becomes necessary during your visit to an EEA country or Switzerland free of or a reduced cost and you should obtain one prior to departure. All E111 forms need to be valid on 31 December 2005. You can obtain an EHIC card online at www.dh.gov.uk, by calling the EHIC Applications Line on 0845 606 2030 or by post - pick up an EHIC application pack from your local Post Office branch. Suez should be delivered within 21 days. Please note - limitations on the use of the EHIC card apply.

Azamara Cruises welcomes pregnant guests but will NOT accept guests who will enter their 24th week of pregnancy by the beginning of, or at any time during their cruise vacation. All pregnant guests are required to bring a doctor's fit to travel letter with them to the pier, stating the number of weeks pregnant at date of sailing and that they are not a high risk pregnancy. A copy should be sent to Special Services in advance of sailing (see clause 4.2).

2.8 What should I do if I have lost my air tickets?

If your tickets are lost or stolen prior to the commencement of your holiday please report the loss to us immediately. If your tickets become lost or stolen during the holiday (including your time spent at the airport) you must report this to the airline and the local police. If you are unable to do so, there will be a charge for the reissue of your air tickets. You will be informed of these at the time of reporting the lost or stolen tickets, as the charges vary depending on the airline.

3. From plane to port

3.1 How do I get to my cruise?

On our flight inclusive holidays, we offer international flight departures from selected U.K. airports. Connecting U.K. domestic flights are also available from a selection of regional airports. Some flights may incur a supplement which will be advised at the time of booking.

All flights are also subject to the following conditions:

All flights are subject to availability.
Whilst the dates of your outward and return flights will be advised at the time of booking, the flight timings and/or routing may not be shown on your Confirmation Invoice. We are unable to inform you of your flight timings and routing for bookings made more than 10 months before departure. Please note that your booked flight may not be the most direct route and may also involve a stop on route to your destination, which may involve you disembarking from the aircraft. This information will be provided as soon as we are in a position to do so. A contract between us will come into existence when we send out the Confirmation Invoice, even when we are unable to provide flight timings. The flight timings and airlines shown on your Confirmation Invoice cannot be guaranteed and are subject to change. Whilst we endeavour to book the best connections between flights, a wait may be experienced at connecting airports. We are not always in a position to confirm the route, service (scheduled or non-scheduled), airline, aircraft type or the airport of destination, which will be used in conjunction with any flight included in your holiday. When this information is provided at the time of booking or subsequently, it is subject to change (including the substitution of non-scheduled flights for scheduled air services and/or re-routing of air travel due to scheduled air services being withdrawn or changed or being unavailable). Any such change will not entitle you to cancel or change to other arrangements without paying our normal charges.

In any event the actual flight times will be those shown on your tickets, which will be dispatched to you approximately four weeks before departure. You must accordingly check your tickets very carefully immediately upon receipt for confirmation of correct flight times. It is possible that flight times may be changed even after tickets have been dispatched - we will contact you as soon as possible if this occurs.

Any amendments to your flight arrangements will be subject to availability and will incur an administration charge of £35 per person along with any additional costs and charges incurred by us or imposed by the airline. If your tickets have been issued, standard airline cancellation penalties will also apply. In some cases, these could be the full cost of the ticket.

If you wish to travel on a particular carrier, flight routing, if any, or to travel on a particular date other than the standard flight inclusive package, a Custom air fee of £20 per person will be payable along with any additional costs and charges incurred by us or imposed by the airline.

3.2 What class is booked? Can I pre-reserve seats? Will the flight be direct? Can I make special requests?

Unless you book and pay for an upgrade, you will fly economy class. We strongly recommend that you check-in early if you have a particular seat request as we have no control over the allocation of seats. Flights are often full, your choice of seats may not be available, and it may not be possible to obtain seats together. Please note that only fully fit and able-bodied guests may occupy exit row seats on aircraft. Emergency exit seats will therefore only ever be assigned at the discretion of the airline at check-in. Please note that if you are flying with British Airways, then guests must be able to log on to ba.com 24 hours before departure to pre-reserve your seats directly.

Some flights will involve a change of aircraft. Where applicable, and we are in a position to notify you, this information will be shown on your Confirmation Invoice. The flights used in conjunction with our cruises may be based on special fares and may not be by the most direct route. Flights may have at least one refuelling and/or other stop and this may not be shown on your confirmation invoice. Flights will either be scheduled or non-scheduled service. All airlines operate a non-smoking policy.

We're the airline's endeavour to satisfy any special service(s) requests such as special dietary requirements, meet and assist and wheelchair assistance. Regrettably we/the airline cannot guarantee your request. Some medical assistance and some special meal requests may incur a charge by the airline, which will be invoiced accordingly. Please note that any request of this nature should be advised at the time of booking and confirmed in writing at least 45 days prior to your sail date. Please email flycruise@btccr.com or fax 01932 834326. Not meeting any special request for any reason will not be a breach of contract. Please note: Airlines may at their discretion refuse to carry passengers with certain medical conditions. You must provide details of all medical and physical conditions, which affect you, and/or any member of your party at the time of booking. See also clauses 4.3, 5.2 and 5.6 below.

Please note that British Airways will not allow us to pre-sell our guests. Guests need to log on to www.ba.com 24 hours before departure to pre-reserve their own seats.

3.3 What if I want to upgrade my standard air arrangements?

Subject to availability and paying any difference in price, you can arrive in style by upgrading your flight. If you are interested in upgrading your flight to a destination featured in this brochure, please contact our Special Services department and your request will be passed on to the Air Sea department. Please note that the upgrade package may differ from the upgrade package offered by the airline.

3.4 What if my flight is delayed?

Regrettably, flight delays do occasionally occur. In this event, the airline concerned may provide refreshments, and if necessary, overnight accommodation depending on the expected length of the delay, the time of day and the airport in question. This is entirely at the discretion of the airline. We cannot accept any liability for any delay, which is due to any of the reasons set out in clause 5.7 of these booking conditions (which includes the behaviour of any passenger on the flight who for example fails to check-in or board on time). Please Note: If your flight is cancelled or delayed, your flight ticket is downgraded or boarding is denied by your airline in circumstances which would entitle you to claim compensation against the airline under EC Regulation No 261/2004 - the Denied Boarding Regulations 2004, you must pursue the airline for the compensation due to you. All sums you receive or are entitled to receive from the airline concerned by virtue of these Regulations represent the full amount of your entitlement to compensation or any other payment arising from such cancellation, delay, downgrading or denied boarding. This includes any disappointment, distress, inconvenience or effect on any other arrangements. The fact a delay may entitle you to cancel your flight does not automatically entitle you to cancel any other arrangements even where those arrangements have been made in conjunction with your flight. We have no liability to make any payment to you in relation to the Denied Boarding Regulations or in respect of any flight cancellation or delay, downgrading of any flight ticket or denial of any boarding as the full amount of your entitlement to compensation or any other payment (as dealt with above) is covered by the airline's obligations under the Denied Boarding Regulations. If, for any reason, you do not claim against the airline and make no claim for compensation from us, you must, at the time of payment of any compensation to you, make a complete assignment to us of the rights you have against the airline in relation to the claim that gives rise to that compensation payment. If your airline does not comply with these rules you should complain to the Air Transport Licensing Committee on 020 7240 6061 or www.atsl.org.uk.

4. On board ship

4.1 What are the dining arrangements?

Open seating in the main dining room means guests can eat whenever they choose between 6:00pm - 9:30pm. Dining times may vary slightly on port days due to shore excursions.

4.2 What about special diets?

Azamara Cruises can accommodate the following special diets on board: vegetarian, diabetic, low-fat, low-sodium, low-cholesterol diets. Other special diets such as kosher meals, gluten-free and lactose-free may be available upon advanced request. Note: Kosher meals are pre-packed and are not available for dinner in the main restaurant. Please note that Kosher food and other special meal requests may not be the same standard and offer the same range as the food provided under the general menu. Please submit your dietary request in writing at least 90 days prior to your sail date accompanied as much detail as possible as to your particular requirements. Please email specialservices@btccr.com or fax 01932 820660. We will endeavour to accommodate reasonable requests, although we cannot guarantee we will be able to meet requirements. Please ask your Travel Agent for further information.

Please note that whilst we are able to take requests for specific dietary requirements and take note of food intolerances, this is confined to the main restaurant on each ship. We are unable to guarantee or accept responsibility that the food served in any other food establishment on board ship will be able to cater for specific dietary requirements and food intolerances.

4.3 Can a special request be guaranteed?

Regrettably, no. If you have a special request, please give details in writing to your Travel Agent or us (if booking directly) at the time of booking. Whilst we and our suppliers will endeavour to meet reasonable special requests, we regret we cannot guarantee that we/the supplier will be able to do so. Not meeting any special request for any reason will not be a breach of contract. If a special request can only be met at an additional cost, that cost will either be invoiced prior to departure or will be payable locally. Confirmation that a special request has been met, or not met, will be provided to you at the time of booking. We are unable to pass on to the supplier or the inclusion of the special request on your confirmation invoice or any other documentation not confirmed by the airline, which request will be met.

Unless specifically agreed by us in writing at the time of booking, we cannot accept any booking, which is conditional on a special request being satisfied. Such bookings will be treated as normal bookings subject to the above conditions on special excursions.

4.4 Shore excursions and activities.

The information contained in our brochure is correct to the best of our knowledge at the time of the brochure going to print. Our brochures descriptions may refer to activities which are available in the ports you are visiting. We have no involvement in any such activities, which are neither run, supervised nor controlled in any way by us. The shore excursions are provided by local operators who are entirely independent of us. They do not form any part of your contract.

We do not form any part of your contract with us even where we suggest particular operators/centres and/or assist you in booking such activities in any way. Accordingly, we cannot accept any liability in relation to such activities and the acceptance of liability contained in clause 5.7 of our booking conditions will not apply to them. We cannot guarantee accuracy at all times of information given in relation to such activities or about the resorts/area you are visiting generally (except where this concerns the services which will form part of your contract) or that any particular excursion or activity which does not form part of our contract will take place as these services are not under our control. If you feel that any of the activities mentioned in our brochure, which are not part of our contract, are vital to the enjoyment of your holiday, write to us immediately and we will tell you the latest known situation. If we become aware of any material alterations to resorts/area information and/or such outside activities, which can reasonably be expected to affect your decision to book a holiday with us, we will pass on this information at the time of the booking.

Please note that we may be able to offer shore excursions for those guests with limited mobility, however, different charges may apply. Please contact our Special Services Department by email at shortexcursions@btccr.com at the time of booking.

5. Additional information

5.1 What if I am travelling with a group?

Please consult your travel agent or ourselves directly for deposit payment, cancellation and refund policies. Terms and conditions for those travelling in a group are different to those that apply to individual bookings.

5.2 What about guests with special needs?

You must ensure that you are medically and physically fit for travel, and that such travelling will not endanger you or anyone else. At the time of booking (or as soon as possible if the condition arises after booking) you must tell your travel agent in writing about any medical or physical condition, which will or may require medical treatment or attention during your holiday or which may or will affect your holiday in any way (including the use of any services or facilities). Please provide as much information as possible.

Except as set out below, our ships have selected stations designated for guests with physical disabilities. Please contact our Reservations Department for further information. Guests who use wheelchairs must provide their own collapsible wheelchair and may find certain areas of the ship inaccessible. If you would like to bring a motorised wheelchair or scooter on board you must contact our Special Services department (see clause 4.2) at time of booking to provide the dimensions as size limitations may apply and we may not be able to accommodate this request. Certain conditions (for example, use of leadders or shore excursions) may prevent guests with wheelchairs from going ashore at certain ports of call. Guests affected by a disability or medical condition must be self-sufficient or travel with someone who can provide all necessary assistance. We regret we must reserve the right to refuse to allow anyone to travel who, in our reasonable opinion, is physically or mentally unfit to travel or will or may require care beyond that which any travelling companion or ourselves can reasonably provide.

5.3 Are there any age restrictions?

No person under 21 (a 'minor') may sail on any cruise holiday and have a stateroom on his or her own unless accompanied by a parent or guardian or authorised person who is over the age of 21. No guest under the age of twenty one (21) will be booked in a stateroom unless accompanied by an adult twenty-one (21) or over. Any minor who is not travelling with at least one of their parents/legal guardian(s) will only be permitted to board the ship and undertake the cruise if accompanied by a parent(s) over the age of 21. For minors aged 17 or under at the start of the sailing, written authorisation from a parent/legal guardian must be provided at the time of booking. For minors 18, 19 or 20 at the start of the sailing, written authorisation is not required. Adults who are not the parent or legal guardian of any child travelling with them are required to provide the child's valid passport and any applicable visa and an original legally affirmed or notarised letter signed by at least one of the child's parents/legal guardians. The letter must authorise the travelling adult to take the minor/s on the specified cruise and must authorise the travelling adult to supervise the child and to authorise any medical treatment that must be administered to the child which is in the opinion of the treating doctor needs to be carried out without delay. A letter can be legally affirmed or notarised by a practising Solicitor, Notary or Commissioner for Oaths for a fee. If such evidence is not produced, the minor(s) concerned will not be permitted to board the ship or undertake the cruise. We will not be responsible for any costs, expenses or losses suffered as a result either by the minor affected, the person(s) paying for their cruise (if not the minor him/herself), or any persons travelling with the minor who decide not to continue with the holiday as a result of the failure to produce a letter of authorisation as set out above. We will not pay any compensation or give any refund to any minor who we have not permitted to board the ship, any person paying for the minor's holiday (if not the minor him/herself), or any persons travelling with the minor who decide not to continue with the cruise themselves as a result of the failure to produce a letter of authorisation.

Please note that parent(s)/legal guardian travelling with a child who has a different surname to the parent(s)/legal guardian, will be required to produce official proof of a full birth certificate/wedding certificate/divorce papers etc to prove that they are the parent(s)/legal guardian of the children concerned. Proof of legal guardianship is also required where there is a minor travelling with their legal guardian.

Individual staterooms can be booked by married couples whose minimum age are eighteen (proof of marriage is required at time of booking). On board there are certain facilities where each entry is restricted by age. Persons using the Elemis Aquaspa™ must be over the age of 18. Full details of onboard facilities with age restrictions are contained within the Daily Programme, which is available from the Guest Relations Desk.

The minimum age for infants to sail is six (6) months, as of the date of sailing and twelve (12) months, as of the date of sailing for Transatlantic, Transpacific, Hawaii, selected South American cruises and other selected cruises. The health and safety of our guests is our number one priority. As such, in consideration of the limitations of the shipboard medical facility, equipment and staff, the company can not accept waivers, releases or requests for exceptions to this policy.

5.4 What about advanced or delayed sailings and changes in the itinerary?

We regret we cannot guarantee that ships will call at every advertised port or follow every part of the itinerary. Itineraries may change from time to time before and after your sailing departure. Azamara Cruises and the Master of the ship have the right to omit or substitute any port(s), call at any additional port(s), vary the order of call or ports, change the time of arrival at, departure from or time spent at any port of call, deviate from the advertised itinerary in any way or substitute another ship. Where possible, you will be notified of any significant changes to your confirmed itinerary before departure from the U.K. - see clause 5.5. Changes to the last confirmed itinerary for your cruise may become necessary after you have departed from the U.K. for a variety of reasons such as prevailing weather and sea conditions, guest emergencies, providing assistance to other vessels and the ship being unable to operate at its normal speed(s) due to unexpected mechanical or technical problems. We will of course do our best to avoid any changes which will have a significant detrimental effect on your last confirmed itinerary. However, we cannot accept any liability in respect of any changes which result from circumstances outside our control (see clause 5.10) or which do not have a significant detrimental effect.

5.5 Can you change or cancel my holiday?

Occasionally, we may have to make changes to and correct errors in the brochure and other details both before, and after, bookings have been confirmed and, even more rarely, cancel confirmed bookings. There may be a requirement to carry out maintenance/working hours on your cruise. Where the works are likely to seriously impair your holiday, we will notify you as soon as possible. Whilst we always endeavour to avoid changes and cancellations, we must reserve the right to do so. If we have to make a significant change or cancel, we will tell you as soon as possible. If there is time to do so before departure, we will offer you the choice of the following options:-

- (a) for significant changes) accepting the changed arrangements or
- (b) purchasing an alternative holiday of a, of a similar standard to that originally booked if available. We will offer you at least one alternative holiday of equivalent or higher standard for which you will not be asked to pay any more than the price of the original holiday. If this holiday is in fact cheaper than the original one, we will refund the price difference. If you do not wish to accept the holiday we specifically offer you, you may choose any of our other then available holidays. You must pay the applicable price of any such holiday. This will mean you paying more if it is more expensive or receiving a refund if it is cheaper.
- (c) cancelling or accepting the cancellations in which case you will receive a full and quick refund of all monies you have paid to us.

Please note, the above options are not available where any change made is a minor one.

What is a significant change?

A significant change is a change to your confirmed holiday which we can reasonably expect will have a significant effect on it. Examples of significant and minor (defined below) changes are as follows:

Significant change: A change from two days port of calls to two days sailing instead
Minor change: A change from one port of call to another;
A change from one day's port of call to one day's sailing;
A change in timings for any port(s) of call but the ship still calls at all confirmed ports;

A change in order of ports that are visited.
Very rarely, we may be forced by "force majeure" (see clause 5.10) to change or terminate your holiday after departure but before the scheduled end of your time away. This is extremely unlikely but if this situation does occur, we regret we will be unable to make any refunds (unless we obtain any refunds from our suppliers), pay you any compensation or meet any costs or expenses you incur as a result.

5.6 Can you refuse to allow me to travel?

If in our reasonable opinion or the reasonable opinion of the ship's Master or doctor, you are or appear to be unfit to travel for any reason or a risk or danger to yourself or a danger to others or behave in such a way as to cause or likely to cause danger, upset or distress to any third party or danger to property. In this situation we are entitled without prior notice to refuse to allow you to travel on any ship and to terminate your cruise holiday at any time. You may then be left at any port or place at which the ship calls without our incurring any liability. You will have to pay any costs, expenses or losses suffered as a result, and we will not pay any compensation or give you any refund. Once your holiday has been terminated in this manner, we will not have any further responsibility towards you.

The same right to refuse to allow you to travel or to use any services applies to you or appear to be unfit to travel or to otherwise behave badly as set out above during any other part of your holiday.

If you have failed to give proper notice of any physical or mental disability or condition in accordance with clause 5.2 (including informing us of any change or deterioration in any notified disability or condition) which you will or may require care beyond that which any travelling companion or ourselves can reasonably provide, we are entitled to refuse to allow you to travel. However, at our discretion, the cruise only after you have been terminated in this manner, we will not have any further responsibility towards you.

On every Azamara ship, we are committed to providing every guest with a cruise holiday that is excellent. To further ensure that you and your fellow guests receive exactly that, we have developed a set of Guest Behaviour Policies. This is available on board. IMPORTANT: A violation of Azamara Cruises' Guest Behaviour Policies is cause for appropriate corrective action, including confiscation of improper materials or items taken on board. The guest from the ship or refused to allow you to travel on or termination of future cruise bookings. These policies are subject to change without notice and without liability to Azamara Cruises. Azamara Cruises is free to adopt additional rules not stated in these policies.

5.7 What is your liability?

- (1) Subject to clause 5.8 below we promise to make sure that the holiday arrangements we have agreed to make, perform or provide as applicable as part of our contract with you are made, performed or provided with reasonable skill and care. This means that, subject to these booking conditions, we will accept responsibility if, for example, you suffer death or personal injury or your contracted holiday arrangements are not provided as promised or prove deficient as a result of the failure of ourselves, our employees, agents or suppliers to use reasonable skill and care in making, performing or providing, as applicable, your contracted holiday arrangements. Please note it is your responsibility to show that reasonable skill and care has not been used if you wish to make a claim against us. In addition, we will only be responsible for what our employees, agents and suppliers do or do not do if they were at the time acting within the course of their employment (or employees) or carrying out work we had asked them to do (for agents and suppliers).
- (2) We will not be responsible for any injury, illness, death, loss (for example loss of enjoyment), damage, expense, loss, expense or other sum(s) of any description (1) which which results from any of the following:
 - the act(s) and/or omission(s) of the person(s) affected or any member(s) of their party or
 - the act(s) and/or omission(s) of a third party not connected with the provision of your holiday and which were unforeseeable or unavoidable or
 - "force majeure" as defined in clause 5.10 below

Please note, we cannot accept any liability for any damage, loss, expense or other sum(s) of any description (1) which on the basis of the information given to us by you concerning your booking prior to our accepting it, we could not have foreseen you would suffer or before it was breached our contract with you or (2) which did not result from any breach of contract or other fault by ourselves or our employees or, or any other travel agent nominated by us in accordance with we cannot accept liability for any business losses.

Please note, we cannot accept responsibility for any services, which do not form part of our contract. This includes, for example, any additional services or facilities, which your hotel or other supplier provides in order to provide the services or facilities are not advertised in our brochure, and we have not agreed to arrange them. In addition, regardless of any wording used by us on our website, in any of our brochures or elsewhere, we only promise to use reasonable skill and care as set out above and we do not have any greater or different liability to you.

The promises we make to you about the services we have agreed to provide or arrange as part of our contract - and the laws and regulations of the country in which your claim or complaint occurred - will be used as the basis for deciding whether the services in question had been properly provided. If the particular services which give rise to the claim or complaint complied with local laws and regulations applicable to those services at the time, the services will be treated as having been properly provided. This will be the case even if the services did not comply with the laws and regulations of the U.K., which would have applied had those services been provided in the U.K. The exception to this is where the claim or complaint concerns the absence of a safety feature, which might lead a reasonable holidaymaker to refuse to take the holiday in question.

5.8 What is your limit of liability?

Please note: The provisions of the Convention relating to the Carriage of Passengers and their Luggage by sea 1974 ("The Athens Convention") apply to your cruise as well as the process of getting on and/or off the ship. For any claim involving death or personal injury or loss of or damage to luggage the only liability we have to you is in accordance with the Athens Convention. This means you are not entitled to make any claim or to sue us unless expressly permitted by The Athens Convention or which is in excess of the limits provided by The Athens Convention. Any other claims or conditions in accordance with clause 5.2 within the time limits set out in The Athens Convention.

The Athens Convention limits the maximum amount we as the carrier have to pay if found liable in the event of death or personal injury or loss of or damage to luggage and a limit of provision for valuables. For death and personal injury, this limit for U.K. carriers is presently approximately £250,000 per person. For claims concerning luggage, this limit applies, please see other clauses of these terms and conditions.

Where any claim or part of a claim (including those involving death or personal injury) concerns or is based on any travel arrangements (including the process of getting on and/or off the transport concerned) provided by any air, rail or road carrier or any stay in a hotel, the maximum amount of compensation we will have to pay you will be limited. The most we will have to pay for that claim or that part of a claim if we are found liable to you on any basis is, except as otherwise set out in the Booking Conditions, the most the carrier or hotel keeper concerned would have to pay under the International Convention or regulation which applies to the travel arrangements or hotel stay in question (for example, the Warsaw Convention as amended or un-amended and the Montreal Convention for international travel by air and/or for airlines with an operating licence granted by an EU country; the EC Regulation on Air Carrier Liability No 889/2002 for national and international travel by air. Please note: Where a carrier or hotel would not be obliged to make any payment to you under the applicable International Convention or Regulations in respect of a claim or part of a claim, we similarly are not obliged to make a payment to you for that claim or part of the claim. When making any payment, we are entitled to deduct any money which you have received or are entitled to receive from the transport provider or hotelier for the complaint or claim in question. Copies of the applicable International Conventions and Regulations are available from us on request. If you have booked a cruise together with an international or regional flight transfer from us - please also see clause 3.4.

5.9 What happens if I have a complaint?

In the unlikely event you have a reason to complain about what we do, you must immediately notify the Guest Relations Desk on board ship and the supplier of the service(s) in question (if not us). This is to ensure that we are given the opportunity to investigate and resolve the problem as quickly as possible. Any verbal complaint must be put in writing and given to the supplier and us as soon as possible. If a problem does arise, you must write to us on your return to the address below. You must give your booking reference number and a letter of complaint to be received within 28 days of your return from holiday via a different time limit applies to your claim - see clause 2.1, 2.3, 2.4 and 5.8. We will only accept complaints from the lead name of a booking. If your complaint is written on behalf of other members of your travelling party, their full names and booking reference numbers must be clearly stated in the correspondence together with their authority for you to handle the complaint on their behalf. If you fail to follow this simple complaints procedure, your right to claim the compensation you may or may not have been entitled to may be affected or even lost as a result.

Any dispute between us, which cannot be settled by agreement, may be referred to the Conciliation Service operated by the Passenger Shipping Association (PSA). The Conciliation Service is free for you to use. It is not available where the claim solely or mainly concerns physical injury or illness or the consequences of such injury or illness, nor where it would be unfair to evaluate a claim purely on paper. Other conditions also apply. For further details, visit the PSA's website at www.the-psa.org.

If you do not wish to use the PSA's Conciliation Service or if the dispute is not resolved as a result of using the Service, you may go to Court. We both agree that any dispute, claim or other matter arising out of or in connection with your contract or your holiday with us will only be dealt with by the Courts of England and Wales. The contract between us is governed by English law.

From the 1st October 2009, Royal Caribbean Cruises Ltd. (RCLL) are AFTA members and shall allow any dispute arising out of an alleged breach of contract or negligence (if then, occurring on bookings that are made or sail after the date of joining AFTA only) to be referred to arbitration arranged with the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators. It shall be subject to such time, financial and other restrictions as from time to time shall apply.

We can only pay you compensation if the following conditions are met:

- If asked to do so, the person(s) affected must transfer to us any rights they have against the supplier or whoever else is responsible for your claim and complaint.

The person(s) affected must agree to cooperate fully with us and our insurers if we or our insurers want to enforce any rights transferred to us.

5.10 What about circumstances which are outside your control?

Except where we specifically say otherwise in these terms and conditions, we cannot accept any liability or pay any compensation where your holiday and/or any other services we have promised to arrange or provide cannot be provided at all, or as promised or you otherwise suffer any damage or loss (as more fully described in clause 5.7 above) as a result of circumstances which are outside our control ("force majeure"). When we talk about circumstances which are outside our control, we mean any event which we or the supplier of the service in question could not have predicted or avoided even after taking all reasonable care. Such events are likely to include war or threat of war, acts of terrorism or threats of such acts, riots or civil unrest, industrial action, natural or nuclear disaster, fire, adverse weather conditions, health risks, epidemics, mechanical difficulties (which we could not have anticipated or avoided despite our normal comprehensive mechanical checks) and all similar circumstances which are outside our control.

5.11 Brochure validity

You must ensure that you are using an up-to-date brochure when you book your holiday. We cannot accept any liability whatsoever for any mistakes and/or any incorrect/inaccurate information which results from the use of an out of date brochure.

5.12 What other conditions apply to my holiday?

Airlines, hotels, lodges, rental companies and our other suppliers have their own conditions, which will apply to your holiday. Some of these conditions may limit or exclude the airline's or other supplier's liability to you, often in accordance with International Conventions. Copies of the relevant parts of these conditions are available upon request.

5.13 Is my money safe?

A. Flight Inclusive Cruise Holidays
Royal Caribbean Cruises Ltd. (RCLL) are the parent company of Celebrity Cruises, Inc. and are located in Miami, Florida. RCLL holds an Air Travel Organiser's Licence (ATOL no 3088) issued by the Civil Aviation Authority ("CAA"). This means that if you purchase an Azamara flight inclusive cruise holiday (where the flight is arranged by us) and we experience an event of our insolvency, the CAA will ensure that you are not left stranded abroad and will arrange to refund any money you have paid to us for an advance booking. You will receive a confirmation invoice from us. For further information visit the ATOL website at www.atol.org.uk.

If you have booked an Azamara flight inclusive cruise holiday with one of our authorised travel agents, all monies you have paid for that booking will be protected by the above arrangements regardless of whether that travel agent becomes insolvent or before it is arranged by us. You will receive your confirmation invoice. In this event, you will be required to pay any outstanding balance due (if any) directly to us (or any other travel agent nominated by us) in accordance with these booking conditions in order to receive your holiday. If you have booked an Azamara flight inclusive cruise holiday via one of our authorised travel agents you should receive from the travel agent a confirmation invoice issued by us which shows that we have arranged the flights as well as the cruise part of the holiday.

B. Cruise-Only Holidays

Royal Caribbean Cruises Ltd. (RCLL) is a member of AFTA with membership number Y1650. AFTA and AFTA members help holiday makers get the most from their travel and assist them when things do not go according to plan. We are obliged to maintain a high standard of service to you by AFTA Code of Conduct. For further information about AFTA, the Code of Conduct and the arbitration scheme available to you if you have a complaint, contact AFTA, 30 Park Street, London, SE1 1EQ. Tel: 020 317 0500 or www.afta.com.

When you book an Azamara Cruises cruise-only holiday via one of our authorised travel agents, all monies you pay for that booking will be held by the travel agent on your behalf until we issue our confirmation invoice. Until that point, your monies are not protected by our AFTA membership or any other arrangement. We therefore recommend that you use a travel agent who offers their own financial security arrangements so that in the event that the travel agent becomes insolvent before we issue our confirmation invoice, all monies that you have paid to that travel agent will be refunded to you.

In the event that your authorised travel agent becomes insolvent after we have issued our confirmation invoice, then all monies you have paid to that travel agent for that cruise only holiday are protected by our AFTA membership. You will be required to pay any outstanding balance due (if any) directly to us (or any other travel agent nominated by us) in accordance with these booking conditions in order to receive your holiday. If you have booked a cruise-only holiday with us, you should expect to receive from the travel agent a confirmation invoice issued by us, which shows that we are responsible for the cruise part of your holiday only.

Please note, when we refer to cruise-only holidays above, this includes any on shore hotel accommodation and/or ground transfers arranged by us as part of your booking with us.

C. Cruise-Only Holidays plus other services arranged by your travel agent or tour operator

You may book an Azamara cruise-only holiday in conjunction with other services (such as flights, on shore accommodation and ground transfers) which are arranged or provided by a travel agent or tour operator ("travel organiser") with whom you book. In this situation, your contract for your entire holiday including the cruise and all other such services and arrangements will be with your travel organiser and not us. Your holiday will not be protected by RCLL's ATOL or PSA membership. Instead, you must check that your travel organiser has their own ATOL (if your holiday includes any flight(s)) or other appropriate financial security arrangements to protect all monies you pay to that organiser for your holiday and to repatriate you if already abroad (if applicable) in the event of their insolvency.

You should receive a confirmation invoice issued by the travel organiser showing that they are responsible for providing all elements of your holiday. In the event of insolvency of the travel organiser before we have received full payment from them for the cruise only element of your holiday, your cruise only booking may be cancelled and we will be under no obligation to provide you with that cruise, or any refund or any compensation. In such circumstances, you should seek compensation from the financial security arrangements (if any) that the travel organiser has made. For further information visit the appropriate websites: www.atol.org.uk or www.psa-psa.org.

5.14 Price and brochure accuracy

Azamara Cruises' policies and procedures are constantly evolving. At the time of printing, all those listed in this brochure were correct. Please note: The information, itineraries and prices shown in this brochure may have changed by the time you come to book your holiday. Whilst every effort is made to ensure the accuracy of the brochure and prices at the time of printing, we cannot guarantee that occasionally occur. You must therefore ensure that you check all details of your chosen holiday with your travel agent, or us with direct, at the time of booking.

5.15 Common Interest Groups

From time to time we may invite various affinity groups of people onto our ships. Affinity groups are people with shared interests who choose to travel together. This may include on dates when you are sailing with us. Although we envisage that this will not affect the overall normal day-to-day operation of the ship, there may be occasions when certain facilities are unavailable to you whilst these groups are on board.

PRIVACY STATEMENT

For the purposes of the Data Protection Act 1998, we, Celebrity Cruises Inc are a data controller. In order to process your booking, we need to collect certain personal details from you. These details will include, where applicable, the names and addresses of party members, credit/debit card or other payment details and special requirements, such as those relating to any disability or medical condition, which may affect the chosen holiday arrangements, and any dietary restrictions which may disclose your religious beliefs. We may also need to collect other personal details such as your nationality, citizenship, gender and passport details in addition to the details mentioned above. If we need any other personal details, we will inform you before we obtain them from you.

We need to pass on your personal details to the companies and organisations that need to know them so that your holiday can be provided (for example your airline, hotel, other supplier, credit/debit card company or bank). We may also be required, either by law or by applicable third parties (such as Immigration Authorities) to disclose your details for various reasons; for example in the interests of protecting national security.

However, such disclosures will only be made if permitted by the Data Protection Act 1998. Such companies, organisations and third parties may be outside the European Union, Norway, Iceland or Liechtenstein if your holiday is to take place in or to involve suppliers outside these countries. We would also like to store and use your personal details for future marketing purposes, (for example sending you a brochure or details of a promotion). All details you give us in connection with your booking (including those relating to any disability or medical condition or your religious beliefs) will be kept confidential to you. We will use only names and contact details for marketing purposes. Occasionally, we may sell clients' names and addresses to other companies or organisations that offer goods or services, which we feel, may interest you. If you do not want us to do any and/or all of these things, please let us know as soon as possible.

We are entitled to assume you do not object to our doing any of the things mentioned in this statement unless you tell us otherwise in writing. Except where expressly permitted by the Data Protection Act, we will only deal with the personal details you give us as set out above unless you agree otherwise. We have appropriate security measures in place to protect this information.

You are generally entitled to ask us (by letter or e-mail) what details of yours are being held or processed, for what purpose and to whom they may be or have been disclosed. We will charge a fee to respond to such a request. We promise to respond to your request within 40 days of receiving your written request and fee. In certain limited circumstances, we are entitled to refuse your request. If you believe that any of your personal details, which we are processing, are inaccurate or incorrect please contact us immediately.

CCTV (Closed Circuit Television)

We also use CCTV to monitor images on all Azamara ships for the purpose of crime prevention and the safety of our guests; we will usually store these images for up to three months. For further information please contact Azamara Cruises. This brochure was published September 2009. The contents replace all previous editions. Whilst every effort is made to ensure the accuracy of the brochure at the time of printing, regrettable errors may occur and we occasionally omit, and information may have changed since printing.

Azamara Journey, Azamara Quest, are trade/service registered marks of Celebrity Cruises Inc. Ships of Maltese Registry.

At Azamara Cruises, we pride ourselves on the quality of our staff. We are committed to ongoing training, a part of which sometimes involves the recording of telephone calls.
